

Avoid paying fines and penalties!

How to Survive an OSHA Inspection

The APSP Midwest Chapter invites you to find out how to demystify the OSHA inspection process, why inspections occur, how to properly handle an inspection, your rights as an employer, how to avoid or minimize violations, and what happens if citations are issued.

Breakfast & Seminar

Seminar presented by The Horton Group

Thursday, April 16, 2009

Vangelo's Town Center Grille

1021 Fountain View Dr

Carol Stream, Illinois 60188

8:00 a.m. Registration

8:30 a.m. Breakfast (included in fee)

9:00 a.m. Seminar

During this seminar you will learn: • What are the circumstances under which OSHA conducts inspections? • What rights does an employer have when inspected by OSHA? • What right do employees have with respect to OSHA inspections? • How should employers respond during the inspection process? • What happens have ther inspection is completed? • How are penalty amounts determined? • How should employers prepared for an inspection?

Presented by the

Midwest Chapter

Fee: APSP Member, $18 each. Non-members, $25 each.

Reservations required since space is limited.

Please R.S.V.P. no later than Monday, April 13th

Breakfast Menu: Egg, ham and cheese bake; French toast; bacon and sausage; Danish pastry; muffins; fresh fruit; orange juice; coffee and tea.

Please reserve _____ seat(s) at the Breakfast & Seminar.

Enclosed is my check payable to Midwest Chapter, APSP for $_____

Charge my Visa Mastercard American Express account for $_____

Credit Card Number _____ Expiration Date _____

Name on Card _____

Company _____ APSP Member? Yes No

Contact _____ Phone _____

E-mail _____ City/State _____

Fax form with credit card payment to: (630) 510-4501 no later the Monday, April 13th

Mail checks with this form to: Midwest Chapter, APSP • 214 N. Hale St. • Wheaton IL 60187

Questions? E-mail llenard@integrated-solutions.com, or call Liz Lenard (630) 510-4532